

Municipal Administration Council discusses housing, care for the population and food production

Category: Noticias

Published: Wednesday, 16 August 2023 11:26

Written by Equipo de Trabajo Portal Banes

Hits: 112

The Council of the Municipal Administration of Banes met for its second session, with the purpose of evaluating issues of vital importance for the municipality.

At the meeting, the Plan of Measures to implement the agreements derived from the intervention of Prime Minister Manuel Marrero Cruz, at the meeting of the Annual Balance of the System of Attention to the Population on July 4, 2023, was presented and approved. In this regard, the Head of the Department of Attention to the Population, Araceli Yurien Abreu Serrano, explained the actions to be implemented in this administrative body for subsequent execution in the entities of the territory.

Municipal Administration Council discusses housing, care for the population and food production

Category: Noticias

Published: Wednesday, 16 August 2023 11:26

Written by Equipo de Trabajo Portal Banes

Hits: 112

In accordance with the actions carried out to attend mothers of three or more children, covered by Agreement 9009 of the Council of Ministers, they approved the allocation of a subsidy for Yurisleyvis Jara Batista, taking into account the analysis of the commission that attends this program only this case meets the established requirements.

A proposal for the use of the special account was evaluated with the objective of creating new ways for a greater contribution, for this reason it was proposed to develop recreational cultural activities in closed areas, with the collaboration of the projects and musical groups with high call.

Municipal Administration Council discusses housing, care for the population and food production

Category: Noticias

Published: Wednesday, 16 August 2023 11:26

Written by Equipo de Trabajo Portal Banes

Hits: 112

In analyzing the behavior of the housing policy at the end of the semester, they pointed out the results at the end of the year.